

MID MOUNTAIN PEAKS AND GREEN FIELDS OF VIRGINIA

Elegant Hotels. Charming Situated Affording Magnificent Views on All Sides; picturesque Drives Through Wildwood and Forest.

THE INTERMONT, COVINGTON, VA.

This hotel is situated at Covington, Va., in the heart of the Alleghany Mountains, 1,600 feet above the sea level, on the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, amid scenes of wondrous beauty, in the famed spring region of the Virginias.

There are fourteen hundred feet of broad verandas overlooking a beautiful lawn of two acres, covered with magnificent shrubbery and costly flowers. A tennis court, golf grounds, walking, riding, driving, rowing, hunting and fishing, afford to the actively inclined healthful and delightful recreation.

An excellent orchestra will provide music for the guests during the summer season. Dancing every night.

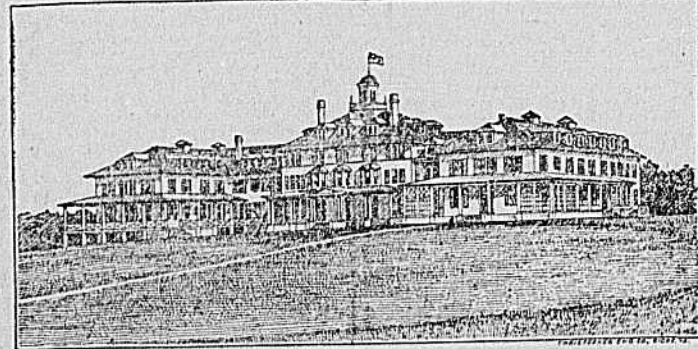

THE ALLEGHANY, GOSHEN, VA.

High up in the Alleghany Mountains, 1,800 feet above sea level, on the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, situated on a commanding elevation, affording magnificent views on every side, stands the Alleghany, one of the most complete summer hotels in the Virginia mountains.

The lobby, dining-room, drawing-rooms and ball-room are tastefully finished with natural wood, and it can be safely stated that for beauty and comfort the hotel has few superiors among resort hotels.

There is a first-class orchestra, which gives concerts during the day and plays for Germans or masquerade balls during the evening.

THE MECKLENBURG, CHASE CITY, VA.

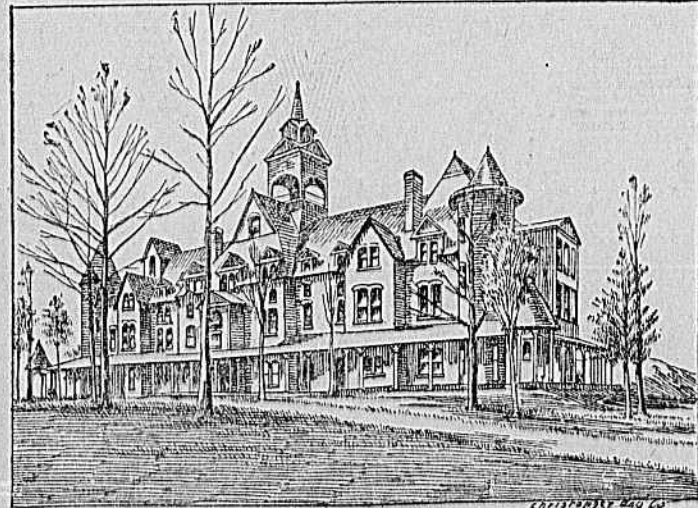

There is no more delightful or healthful location in the broad confines of the Old Dominion State, Virginia, than that of which Chase City is the center.

It is here that the Mecklenburg Hotel and Sanatorium is located. The buildings, which are entirely new and modern, and which were completed only in the early autumn of 1902, stand upon an elevated plateau 535 feet above sea level.

The Mecklenburg Hotel and Sanatorium is not only of modern construction, but its interior arrangements, its public and private rooms, its sanitary and culinary equipment, all partake of the modern methods of comfort, health and convenience.

Extensive verandas and sun parlors add to the attractiveness and comfort of the building. The cuisine and service of the Mecklenburg are maintained upon the standard of the best city hotels.

THE JEFFERSON PARK, CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

The Jefferson Park Hotel is delightfully situated on a commanding elevation overlooking Charlottesville (two miles distant) and the surrounding country, in full view of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, and near Pantone Academy and the McCormick Observatory of the University of Virginia.

This hotel, with extensive verandas, is comparatively new, and has all modern conveniences, such as electric bells, electric lights, hot and cold baths, etc., and can accommodate 150 guests.

Extensive groves of oak and pine in rear of hotel. Cool, shady lawn, with rustic seats overlooking the tennis court and sloping on all sides so that there is perfect drainage, making the place unusually dry. Scenery picturesque and enchanting. Atmosphere very dry and invigorating. The views about the "Jefferson Park" are charming.

THE TEE-DEE OUTINGS FOR SUMMER

Fourteen Prize Trips---Forty-two People---Twenty-eight of the Sweetest Girls to Be Selected by Ballot---Fourteen Chaperones to Be Appointed by the Winners---The Young Ladies Are to Be Voted for in Pairs and Each Party to Have a Chaperone.

A week at the seashore!

A week in the mountains!

Two young ladies and a chaperone!

Fourteen such parties, or forty-two people.

And The Times-Dispatch to pay the bills.

That's the story in brief.

The plan is simple.

The Times-Dispatch has made arrangements with seven of the very best summer resorts in the State—three at the seashore and four in the mountains—to entertain in the very best style those who go as guests of The Times-Dispatch.

Obviously, The Times-Dispatch could not extend the invitation to all of the pretty girls nor to all of the charming chaperones in the State, so it has been found necessary to place just two restrictions to this offer. The first and most important is that the offer is made only to young ladies who by their own efforts contribute in part or in whole to their own support by some regular and steady vocation.

A POPULAR VOTE.

The other restriction is forced in to the plan by reason of the utter inability of those who make The Times-Dispatch to decide who are the most worthy, the most charming, or who most deserve a week of jolly outing. Therefore, it has been decided, after careful consideration, to leave the selection to a popular vote of the people.

The part of The Times-Dispatch will be to present the plan and to pay the bills. The part of the girls will be to see that they are elected, and the part of the chaperones—the shy and modest chaperones—will be to wait until they are invited. As stated above, The Times-Dispatch has already arranged with seven hotels to entertain the guests of the paper. There will be seven hotels and fourteen parties, of three people each. Therefore, each hotel will entertain two parties for a week; party No. 1 going one week, and party No. 2 the next week.

The voting must all be done on coupons cut from The Times-Dispatch, or by certificate as hereafter explained, and the girls must all be voted for in pairs.

WINNERS SELECT HOTEL.

Each coupon will contain the place for two names. The two young ladies who receive the highest number of votes will be entitled to the first choice. That is, they can select the hotel which they prefer, and can decide for themselves whether they wish to go the first week or the second week. The two girls who receive the second highest number of votes will have the second choice of hotels and weeks. The third, the third choice, and so on down to the fourteenth, which fourteenth highest number, of course, takes the last prize.

The two young ladies who are elected in each of the fourteen pairs will have the privilege of selecting their own chaperone, and the party of three thus formed, the two young ladies and their chaperone, will in each of the fourteen cases be furnished with railroad tickets to their destination and return, and a receipted hotel bill for one week's board and lodging by The Times-Dispatch. The only young ladies who will be barred from entering this contest will be those who are in any way connected, directly or indirectly, with this paper, and those who in no way contribute to their own support. No girl will be allowed to enter who lives upon the bounty of any one, be it father, brother, mother or any one else. There is no age limit (and no statement of age will be required either from principals or chaperones), nor are there limitations of any sort other than those set forth above. It is simply this: The two girls who can get the most votes can spend a week at the seashore or in the mountains at the expense of The Times-Dispatch, and the plan is so enlarged as to extend the invitations to twenty-eight young ladies, who can select fourteen chaperones, making fourteen parties of three persons each. Every girl and every young lady can vote for herself just as often as she pleases, and there is nothing to prevent her gentleman friends from voting for her, too, and as many times as she wants to, but when she votes for herself she must vote for her chum at the same time, and her friends must vote for two.

HOW TO WIN.

To insure election, and to save confusion, and to make the parties congenial, the young ladies form from their own combinations. Miss Blue Eye West End and her chum, Miss Blonde East End, should decide that they would enter the race together, and that they would select Aunt Cary or Marshall for their chaperone. Both the young ladies and their chaperone should then begin a vigorous election campaign. Their friends and neighbors should be notified at once that they are partners; that they are in the race to win and that they want coupons cut from the Tee-Dee. If a young lady's daily occupation takes her to the school room she has the scholars and their parents from whom to draw votes; or if she goes to office, store or factory, she can electioneer among her associates.

CERTIFICATE OF VOTES.

Every copy of The Times-Dispatch, from to-day until Wednesday, July 15th, will contain a coupon prepared for two names, and each coupon means a vote for two girls to spend a week of delightful summer vacation free from all expense. Besides the coupons, The Times-Dispatch will issue from the main office, certificates of votes in various numbers, which will be counted as coupons, based on the following plan: For each paid in advance subscription, for a person not already a subscriber, a certificate will be issued for half as many votes as there are cents in the price of the subscription. For instance, 12 cents for one week's subscription in Richmond or Manchester would be equal to six votes. Fifty cents for one month's subscription would give twenty-five votes. Six dollars for a year in Richmond or Manchester would entitle to three hundred votes, or $5.00 for one year out of town would give 250 votes. All who secure certificates of votes by sending in subscriptions, either in or out of Richmond, will not only receive the number of votes to which they are entitled by the certificate, but will have the privilege of cutting the coupons from the papers on which the certificate is based, thereby gaining twice the number of votes.

Votes will be received at The Times-Dispatch office and various other places in Richmond, and every possible care and safeguard will be placed about the contest to insure perfect fairness and accuracy. The polls will close promptly at 6 P. M. Wednesday, July 15th.

LIST OF HOTELS TEE-DEE OUTINGS

Mountain and Seaside Resorts, Their Locations and Attractions.

The following seashore and interior resorts have been arranged with to entertain the fourteen fortunate parties who will be the guests of the Tee-Dee Summer Outings.

All these places are charmingly situated and have commodious, well cared for rooms, clean and efficient service, good tables and amusements galore.

FATHER NEPTUNE'S DOMAIN BY SAD SEA WAVES

Old Point, Virginia Beach and Ocean View, names to Conjure With. Sandy Beach and Ocean Breezes. Fishing and Boating.

PRINCESS ANNE, VIRGINIA BEACH, VA.

The Princess Anne Hotel, the South's most favored oceanic resort, seventeen miles east from Norfolk, Va., at Virginia Beach, Va. A modernized hostelry, furnishing superior accommodations for comfort, convenience and entertainment of its patrons. Delightfully located upon the finest beach north of Florida. Immense sun parlors, ball room and verandas overlooking the ocean. Being in close proximity to Chesapeake and Lynnhaven Bays and Currituck Sound, famous for oysters, fish and game, and in the heart of the finest truck section of the world, visitors are assured an abundance of game, seafood, fresh fruit and vegetables.

Surf bathing at Virginia Beach is unequalled. Fifty miles of unbroken beach make this feature beyond comparison. Riding and driving, tennis, hunting and fishing are a few of the many other attractions for amusement.

OCEAN VIEW, OCEAN VIEW, VA.

Everybody knows where Ocean View is. In planning for the season of 1902 the owners have decided to continue the management of the hotel in the hands of Mr. J. Hull Davidson.

The hotel is surrounded by over 2,000 feet of wide verandas, and every room is an outside room. Plenty of air and ventilation everywhere. All modern conveniences are supplied, and the cuisine is famous for its excellence. The finest and safest bathing on the Atlantic Coast.

Under the capable management of Mr. Jake Wells, the Ocean View Casino daily offers attractive bills of clean vaudeville shows—the best to be had in the country. A pleasure pier extending out 500 feet into the ocean, merry-go-round, roller coaster, scenic railway, ping-pong, billiard, bowling and a variety of other amusements, which have caused Ocean View to be dubbed "A Miniature Atlantic City." Morning and afternoon concerts in the music pavilion on the lawn by a large and well trained brass band and orchestra; music in the dining-room and ball-room; dancing every night.

THE NEW SHERWOOD, OLD POINT COMFORT, VA.

Situated on Old Point Comfort, a name to conjure with, beside the wide sweep of waters so well known as Hampton Roads, surrounded by picturesque scenery, alive with memories of history. The Sherwood is just in front of Fort Monroe, the largest and most picturesque of American forts, which covers a large area of ground on Old Point. The manoeuvres of the troops offer a pleasant attraction in the morning and evening hours, and the fort itself, with its frowning guns, overlooks the scene where the famous Merrimack destroyed the Cumberland, gave battle to the Monitor, and revolutionized naval warfare.

This popular hotel has recently been remodeled, renovated and refurnished, and offers a pleasant, attractive and comfortable home to the public seeking health or pleasure. The table, making a specialty as it does of Old Virginia cooking, leaves nothing to be desired.
